

TARIFF PICTURES.
Under a revenue Tariff in 1854 bituminous coal cost $1.05

a ton at Baltimore. In 1893, under the grinding coal Tariff, it sold for $2.50

a ton at the same point.

+ New York Press.

WILDCAT BANKING.
Washington Post.—The Zimri Dwiggs
bank of nerve would incorporate a fog
bank.

+

A CANADIAN VIEW.
Montreal Gazette.—The Geary law was passed to catch votes and seems to have gathered up more dilemma than ballots.

+

WHERE SILENCE WOULD BE GOLDEN.
Globe-Democrat.—The Republican party
has done enough for Clarkson to entitle
it to his silence for several years to come.

+

DEMOCRACY.

Chicago Inter Ocean.—Democrats are divided into four factions, "Tariff" reformers, "Tariffers," "income taxers" and "breakfast table taxers."

+

ADDING INJURY TO INSULT.

Detroit Journal.—A good deal of gossip,
not to say scandal, has been provoked by the talk of the excessive audity
of the ornamental figures in the World's Fair Buildings. But the excitement is still greater now that it is learned that they are so high up that an opera-glass is required to tell just how nude they are.

+

WHAT TO DO.

New York Press.—It might be a good
plan for the Department of State to refer
the question of etiquette surrounding the reception of the Infanta Eulalia to a commission composed of Ward McAllister
and Governor Pennoyer of Oregon.
When their decision is rendered it would be safe for President Cleveland and Secretary Gresham to do just the opposite thing.

+

THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER.

Philadelphia Bulletin.—If this usage
does not produce the desired effect there seems to be nothing left for the cavalry
to do on the White House grounds
and to capture and escort to the railroad
depots of the Capital all persons who are suspected of the high crime and misdemeanor of asking for or expecting an office.

+

CLEVELAND'S UKE.

Savannah News.—The President has made appointments that should have been made by members of his Cabinet.
The Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the rest of the other members of the Cabinet is ready to bear his full share of the burdens imposed by the office-seekers, and the President ought to let them select the men
needed in their respective departments.

+

WITH CLOSED DOORS.

Times Star.—The vexed Sunday question
at the World's Fair is no longer a dead and shut affair, but a sort of half-and-half. It is to be gates ajar for half price. But the burring question still remains. Will the gates to the White House be open on the first or any other day of the week? The office-seekers, like the Sabbatharians, will have to resort to either a mandamus or a boycott
if this thing continues much longer.

+

FACTS ABOUT THE FAIR.

Pittsburgh News.—Jackson Park, in which the Exposition is held, has a frontage on Lake Michigan of one and one half miles, and contains 533 acres, seven-tenths of which are water. The Midway Plaisance is a mile long and 600
feet wide, and contains eighty acres
more. There are thirty-nine Buildings proper, and a floor space of 130 acres. Adding the galleries there are 160.7 acres. Grouped around there are forty-four State and Territorial Buildings, eighteen buildings erected by foreign governments, and forty others for the various purposes of the management, restaurants and advertising, and general enterprises. In the Midway Plaisance are the foreign villas, shops, etc. The visitor who would merely take a passing look at each of the vast array of exhibits must prepare to walk along 124 miles of aisles.
Add to this the distance from one building to another, which must of necessity
be traveled many times, and the distance
to be covered will reach fully 150 miles.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next
Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S
WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR!

Blue—RAIN or SNOW!

With black—WIND!

If black's beneath—COLORS' WILL
be!

Unless black's shown—no change
in weather.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock
to-morrow evening.

PUBLIC LEDGER

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1893.

ONE CENT.

"If you have friends visiting you, or if you are staying over on a visit, please drop us a note
to that effect."

Miss Louie Perrine is visiting friends at Stanford.

Charles Burgess Pearce has gone to Rieb-
mond, Va., to visit his family.

Miss Anna McCrosky of Harrodsburg is the guest of Miss Fannie Filsen, 405 Forest avenue.

George Martin and his sister, Miss Ned, of Forest Hill, are visiting N. G. Harding of the Third Ward.

Miss Sue Worthington of Fern Leaf, accompanied by Mrs. Green R. Kellar of Corliss, is solving the sights at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO'S PRAYER.

Now when we say our daily prayer
that our God may be glorified from our awful country—Chicago Inter Ocean.

FRESH caught fish at John Wheeler's.
STRAWBERRY CREAM Sunday at Martin Brooks.

CINNAMON PHOTOGRAPHS, $1.00 a dozen,
at Parker's Gallery.

DUDLEY & BALDWIN, Fire Insurance,
305 Court street.

ONCE UPON A BRO. frank warehouse,
with 100 of houses and 100 of Paris. Loss $2,000.

DAVID C. LISTER has been appointed by
the Postmaster at Winchester. The Postmaster had a year or two to serve,
according to the rule.

JAMES H. SPRINGER of this city will
by invitation deliver the address for Thomas
D. Sedgwick Post, G. A. H., at Richmond on Memorial Day.

In preparing for a watermelon crop a
Union county farmer had planted a ten-acre
patch and ordered a half dozen shotguns and
ten watch dogs.

DAVID C. LISTER has been appointed by
the Postmaster at Winchester. The Postmaster had a year or two to serve,
according to the rule.

JAMES H. SPRINGER of this city will
by invitation deliver the address for Thomas
D. Sedgwick Post, G. A. H., at Richmond on Memorial Day.

In preparing for a watermelon crop a
Union county farmer had planted a ten-acre
patch and ordered a half dozen shotguns and
ten watch dogs.

Beginning

Monday

Next

The Ledger

and

The Cincinnati Tribune Combined

at

Fifty Cents a Month!

This is an unparalleled newspaper offer. Both papers will be served at your residence at the former price of The Tribune alone.

Leave orders at this office.

For Pure Cream leave your order to day at Powell's Bakery.

Mrs. DH. J. A. Hump received at home
on West Second street yesterday morning.

D. P. WALLACE of Scott county was married to Miss Lizzie Tudor at Mt. Olivet a few days ago.

THE TOBACCO factory committee met
yesterday, and resolved to make an investigation
on Wednesday next and report same.

DIANA WHEATLEY, colored, made an ineffective attempt at suicide at Flemings-burg yesterday. She tried the rough-on-rates route.

THE COURT OF APPEALS has affirmed the decision of the lower court that the Louisville Gas Company was exempt from municipal taxation.

DR. JOHN S. HAYS of this city,
who is attending the General Assembly of Presbyterians at Washington City, is dominated at 13th N. street.

A. CORBINOTON, a painter from Millsburg, committed suicide in Cincinnati.
The body was taken to Millsburg. No money and morphine.

We are authorized to announce that there will be no preaching at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow on account of the absence of the Pastor, Rev. Dr. John S. Hay, at Washington City.

OFFICIAL LOUIS LANDMAN of No. 66
West Second street, formerly Elm street
Cincinnati, O., will be at Aberdeen, O., on Sunday and Wednesday, 27th and 28th inst.
Maysville citizens will have a good opportunity to secure their proper glasses.

The bright and charming little actress,
Mabel Paige, and her company will open a week-long engagement at the Opera House
in "Little Louis," Fauquier street.
Miss Paige is only 11 years old, but she is said to display unusual dramatic talent. Popular prices will prevail—10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats
at 10:30 p. m.

The above forecasts are made for a
period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock
to-morrow evening.

WEATHER IS GETTING WARMER.

AND BEFORE MANY MORE MOONS SOMEBODY WILL WANT A LINEY DUSTER.

'Squire Martin's Mean Attempt to Muzzle the Press—What
the Editor of "The Ledger" Thinks of Him, as Compared With the Other Members of the Court—Who's Been Monkeying With the Buzz-Saw?

FOR WE WON'T LET YOU...

There is a bright side to every story and a silly lining even to the dark cloud hovering
about the late session of the Court of Claims.
The better nature of this conservative body
of men was vividly shown before the final adjournment through the instrumentality of two of its most prominent members—Squires
O. N. Weaver of Minerva and William Luttrell of Helena.

These gentlemen generously and willingly
admitted the right of the press to criticize the public actions of public men, the only privilege exercised or asked for by THE LEDGER.

'Squire S. E. Martin reluctantly assumed
the role of wonder-if-he-means-me, manning his feelings to overcome his faculties
of reason, and with an excessive air of presumption moved to have the list of claims allowed by the Board published in but two of the county papers, contemptuously ignoring
THE LEDGER.

His motion elicited no approval from the Court, but was easily overruled by a vast majority of the Court whose course in this
matter will be commended by the hetero-
geneous element of the community.

If an article in the issue of Thursday
engaged the Court of Claims, or any member
of it, to refrain from doing what he had, prior
to that incident, thought right and proper, we
are mistaken in our estimation of the character of some people.

It is gratifying to know that the motives of THE LEDGER were not misguided by a vast majority of the Court whose course in this
matter will be commended by the hetero-
geneous element of the community.

If an article in the issue of Thursday
engaged the Court of Claims, or any member
of it, to refrain from doing what he had, prior
to that incident, thought right and proper, we
are mistaken in our estimation of the
character of some people.

However, we are satisfied that there
are not a dozen people in Mason county, out-
side of the editor of "The Bulletin," who believe
any such statement as was made in that paper
yesterday—namely: That there were several Magistrates who expressed themselves as
having been in favor of doing $2,000 or $3,000 toward the construction of Limestone
bridge.

It is an imputation upon the character of the men who compose the Board of Magistrates to intimate that they were swayed from
the line of duty by an antagonistic article
in a newspaper.

It was only intention to criticize and not to offend, and that I was so underfed by the greater number of the gentlemen composing the Court of Claims.

However, we are satisfied that there
are not a dozen people in Mason county, out-
side of the editor of "The Bulletin," who believe
any such statement as was made in that paper
yesterday—namely: That there were several Magistrates who expressed themselves as
having been in favor of doing $2,000 or $3,000 toward the construction of Limestone
bridge.

What law is there for the so-called "Deficit Claim Tax" levied by the Court of Claims
the last day of its recent session? There is now $4,680.02 in that fund, and yet the levy for this year is 7 1/4 cents on each $100. What's this fund for, anyway, since there's no "deficit"
to be met? This is an "outrageous" question
and how did the city become dispossessed of
that right?

Some people would like to know the reason
for the existence of the Deficit Fund. The sum of $7,690.02 was paid into this fund last year and still 7 1/4 cents on every $100 worth of taxable property in the city is paid in this year. What is the use of a Deficit Fund with no deficiency and not likely to be any
with house business sense on the part of the county managers.

What law is there for pure cream? Leave your order to day for Strawberry or Plain Cream at E. F.
Powell's Bakery.

Mrs. E. M. McNaughton, actor, and honorably citizen, died at his home in Cincinnati
Wednesday, at the ripe old age of 83.

HAVE you seen Miner's spring and summer stock? You can save money by buying your feather wear there. See his advertisement.

THE STATE MILITIA will go into camp during the months of July and August at Bowing Green. The First Regiment will go first followed by the Third and Second.

A UNION Mass Meeting will be held on tomorrow at 3 p. m. in the Baptist Church in the interest of the American Christian Church, conducted by the Rev. S. A. George of Pennsylvania, Secretary of the American Christian Church.

BE SURE to go and see "A Woman's Prayer" at the Opera House—Baptist.
Several specialties will be added to the regular program. A special price of 10 cents will be made to school children. Reserved seats at Nelson's. Prices 10 and 20 cents. Doors open
at 10:30 p. m.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR!

Blue—RAIN or SNOW!

With black—WIND!

If black's beneath—COLORS' WILL
be!

Unless black's shown—no change
in weather.

The above forecasts are made for a
period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock
to-morrow evening.

GOT HIS FEATHERS UP.

The Courthouse presented a lonesome and deserted appearance yesterday. The walls no longer echoed the eloquent words of the orthodox Magistrates. The Court of Claims had gone but its memory lingered.

By what system of law or right are the people of Mayville taxed to pay for the support of county paupers and pauper claims? We hope the entire force of Magistrates will not swallow on us at once and then sweep with an awful vengeance to this "outrageous" question.

With $16,000 in the Turnpike Fund and $1,000 in the Bank the thoughtful Squires obtained from the citizens of the city a sum of $1,000 to pay for the support of the paupers
and pauper claims. We hope the Court of Claims will not be swayed by this "outrageous"
question.

The city of Mayville built and paid for the present Courthouse. She also built and paid for the old jail. In the former case, the city reserved for its own use the room occupied by the Mayor's Office and the Council Chamber.
In the jail, it reserved the exclusive use of one room. Now, the city becomes dispossessed of that room?

Some people would like to know the reason
for the existence of the Deficit Fund. The sum of $7,690.02 was paid into this fund last year and still 7 1/4 cents on each $100. What's
this fund for, anyway, since there's no "deficit"
to be met? This is an "outrageous" question
and how did the city become dispossessed of
that right?

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.
Meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.
Prayer-meeting every Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Ladies' Aid Society Thursday 7:30 p. m.
Class-meeting second and fourth Sundays in each month at 8 p. m. in Pastor's residence.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
Rev. G. Patrick, Pastor.
Praying every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Sunday-school 9:30 a. m.
Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Prayer-meeting every Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Ladies' Aid Society Thursday 7:30 p. m.

CHURCH OF THE NATIVITY.
Services on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
on Fridays at 7:30 a. m.
Services on the first and third Sundays
of the month at 11 o'clock service.

YOUNG WOMEN'S DEVOTIONAL SOCIETY.
Meets every Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.
Prayer-meeting every Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Ladies' Aid Society Thursday 7:30 p. m.

LIFE IN A "JAY" TOWN.

Fred Glesky of Cincinnati Entertained by Maysville Boys.

Mrs. L. V. DAVIS, who has conducted
the Maysville business in this city for the past
twelve years, has only one store in Maysville, Second street below. Second, Second, Second.

COMMISSIONER LOCHER has decided to make a departure in the appointment of Pension Examining Boards. Heretofore he had examined two Republicans and one Democrat or vice versa, but now he will be informed that all members will be Democrats.

THE dry Editor of The Flemingsburg
Times-Democrat is respectfully informed that the Ledger is in no wise disturbed as to Maysville's red liquor supply. We will always have plenty here and enough to furnish Flemingsburg all she wants beside. Send down your jug.

WHERE TO WORSHIP.

Hours When Services Are Held in the Various Churches.

The following Directory was prepared expecially for THE LEDGER.

CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
Rev. W. O. Cochran, Pastor.
Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Sunday-school 9:30 a. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Sunday-school 9:30 a. m.

SECOND STREET M. E. CHURCH.
Rev. D. P. Hale, Pastor.

Praying every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday-school 9:30 a. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday-school 9:30 a. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.
Rev. J. C. H. H. Miller, Pastor.

Praying Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

Public Ledger

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER CO.

WILLIAM H. COX, President
WILLIAM H. WADSWORTH, Jr., Vice-President

THOMAS A. DAVIS, ...Editor and Manager,
SAMUEL T. HUERMAN, Art's Editor and Bookkeeper.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS,
WILLIAM H. COX, M. C. RUSSELL,
A. M. J. COCHERAN, W. H. WADSWORTH, Jr.,
THOMAS A. DAVIS.

OFFICE—Public Ledger Building, No. 1 East
Third Street.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—IN ADVANCE.
One Year $10.00
Six Months $5.00
Three Months $3.00

DELIVERED BY CARRIER. 2 cents
Per Month 2 cents
Payable to carrier at end of month.

TO ADVERTISEES.

Advertising rates uniform and reasonable and made known on application at the office.

THE LEDGER. is the largest daily paper printed in Mayville. It contains the news and measure their length.

It gives you more
readable matter than
any other paper.

It is sold at the same price as any other Mayville paper—on credit
or cash.

It is sold by carrier or sent by mail.

If you are looking for
the paper for your money,
you can get it in THE LEDGER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

Circulation More Than
1,000 Daily.

Early
AND Late

Advertising in THE LEADER is a sales-
man that works early and late. He is talking to people long before your store is open and long after your store is closed.

"CAPITAL is afraid to invest in new factories, either of cane or beet sugar, until the attitude of the party in power is defined," says The American Agriculturalist.

That professed Free-trade party is responsible for this paralyzing fear, the results of which will be seen long.

Strife has been begun at New York against JOHN E. RISLEY, Mr. CLE-LAND'S Minister to Denmark, for an accounting of his fees as joint counsel in the Alabama claims case with the late Senator McDONALD of Indiana. A bill was also filed asking for the appointment of a receiver for Mr. RISLEY's property, and the Court is asked for a writ restraining the defendant from going out of its jurisdiction. The latter action is of special interest, as no such action has ever been granted against a United States Minister.

If this Democratic Administration insists on violating our treaty with China
—made by a former Democratic Administration in 1850—and sending home the unregistered Chinese now in this country, it will cost more than $6,000,000 to do it. If China properly fires all American ships out of its ports, it will also cost more of Mr. CLE-LAND's friends their comandir and ministry. Poor Finkins! He can't get to go to Tien-Tsin; nor will JONES ever reach Yangtsekiang or Brown ever sit on the store-boxes at Hoangpu-mudongky.

The Chinese situation is certainly an embarrassing one for the United States
as well as for the Cleveland Administration, and it seems a shame that after in 1856 inviting the Chinese here and rejoicing over the treaty permitting them
to enter as a great reciprocal arrangement which would open to us the vast Empire of China, we should now
by such an act violate every treaty.

The Government of China has reason to complain of such treatment. If it had been any other Nation with which the United States were dealing there would have been no such treatment, for advantage has been taken of the Chinese
simply because they are a mild, pacific
people. If they should finally revolt it would be but justifiable. It is safe to say that no self-respecting American will contend for the enforcement of such an outrageous measure as the Gey-act.

That wicked city of Lexington, The Louisville Times, is getting deeper and deeper into the mire. Affairs there seem to have been managed in an "off the Council,"
for the Council and by the Council itself.

EULALIA HERE.

Uncle Sam Escorts Her Up the New York Bay.

The Spanish Princess Receives a Hearty Welcome.

The Infanta Looks the Picture of Health.
But is Not a Royal Beauty—Her Husband,
Antonio Maria D'Orleans, an Agreeable Young Man.

NEW YORK, May 20.—The Spanish-American steamship Marie Christina with the Infanta Eulalia aboard, arrived at New York yesterday morning, en route to pass quarantine. The vessel was not expected until Friday morning, and the reception which it was intended to give to the Infanta upon her arrival had to be postponed.

The Infanta, the wife of the Duke of Alfonso, expected to take her aboard of his vessel, tender her a reception and escort her to Jersey City, where she is scheduled to board a train for Washington. The Spanish residents had another plan for her.

The steamship, with her royal freight on board, was first sighted off Long Branch about 7 o'clock.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

The Infanta had been pleased, the reporter said, with the Spanish paper—on credit a copy of which she had sent to a maste-

rior or sent by mail. If you are looking for your money, you can get it in THE
LEADER.

Now is the time to sub-
scribe—subscribe you give it
a month's trial.

The Infanta caught her first glimpse of the United States from the bridge of the Reina Maria Christina. It was the Infanta's first visit to the country, and she said that she saw through the small marine glasses lent to her by Pilot Charles Foster. She expressed the greatest interest in the points to which the pilot drew her attention, and evidently delighted the worthy man's heart by her democratic simplicity.

The Infanta looked the picture of royal health. She is not a royal beauty, but she is very attractive and distinguished in appearance. She has a pleasant smile.

The husband, Antonio Maria D'Orleans, is an agreeable young man of about 33, some seven years her junior.

A United Press reporter borded the vessel and was received by Ricardo Palma, the Spanish consul.

